Justice Benjamin discusses Access to Justice at Bar meeting

For immediate release Friday, May 7, 2010

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W.Va. – Justice Brent D. Benjamin will participate in a panel discussion on Access to Justice in West Virginia at the 2010 West Virginia State Bar’s Annual Meeting on Saturday, May 8.

The two-day meeting is being held at The Greenbrier Resort in White Sulphur Springs.

“I am pleased to take part in a discussion about Access to Justice for the citizens of West Virginia,” Justice Benjamin said. “This is a wonderful opportunity to get members of the West Virginia Bar on board with the Court’s Access to Justice Commission and the issues on which the Commissioners are working to improve access in the state.”

The panel also will feature West Virginia University Law School Dean Joyce E. McConnell and Harry G. Deitzler, President-Elect of the Public Justice Foundation and a voting commissioner on the West Virginia Access to Justice Commission.
